This document just illustrates the use of document class `minimal` applied to illustrate the export functionality of the `xfig` tool creating `tikz` pictures. The document class `minimal` is special in that no PDF properties are created, because it serves as a wrapper for details like pictures in the course of document development.

This document shows, that the `xfig` format can be translated without loss into the `tikz` format.

this is a text